 ABORTION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supports abortion-on-demand throughout all 9 months of pregnancy, up to the moment of birth, for any reason or no reason at all. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Party's official policy declaration explicitly condemns sex-selective abortions. Party policy declaration supports a Born Alive Infant Protection Act that would require babies who survive abortion be given life-saving medical care. A conflict exists between the Policy Platform and the Party Constitution, with respect to an abortion law. The Constitution (good) describes as a guiding principle of the party: "A belief in the value and dignity of all human life", whereas the policy declaration (bad) states that "A Conservative Government will not support any legislation to regulate abortion". The Party policy declaration pledges to implement a "National Adoption Strategy, including an awareness campaign to promote adoption". This is a great policy which, if implemented, would actually reduce the number of abortions in Canada. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Campaign platform pledges that a People's Party government will do two things: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> #1) "Foster a National Debate on Abortion" and "Challenge other political parties to explain why they believe killing a healthy and viable unborn child is morally acceptable and should remain legal." #2) Introduce a "Protection of Preborn Children Act... where abortion is gradually restricted after the first trimester and late-term abortions are prohibited except in exceptional circumstances". The party is open to pro-life candidates and has pledged to allow pro-life private members bills to be put forward. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supports abortion-on-demand throughout all 9 months of pregnancy, up to the moment of birth. Liberal government legalized this form of homicide in 2016, and have steadily loosened eligibility criteria to the point where today, Canadians are being approved for lethal injection because of poverty, inability to pay rent, having chronic allergies, and other "slippery slope" scenarios that Liberals denied would ever happen. The Liberal government even ordered a parliamentary study directed at legalizing child euthanasia in Canada. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> "Opposes euthanasia legalization.  FUNDING OVERSEAS ABORTIONS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Liberals have diverted between $650 - $750 million taxpayer dollars per year to fund abortion, abortion advocacy, contraception and sterilization in foreign countries. For years now, the Trudeau Liberals have boasted that the "right to abortion is... at the core of our foreign policy". 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Official policy is that "abortion should be explicitly excluded from Canada's maternal & child health program in countries where Canadian aid is delivered". 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has pledged to "abolish international development aid" by Canada, with the exception of emergency humanitarian action in cases such as conflicts and natural disasters. In 2017, the Liberal government enshrined gender identity theory in law, embedding it in the Criminal Code of Canada and the Canadian Human Rights Act. Liberals passed Bill C-4 into law, the so-called "conversion therapy ban", which can land parents in jail up to five years for merely affirming their gender-confused son or daughter as the biological sex in which they were born. In recent years, the Trudeau Liberals have funnelled hundreds of millions of taxpayer dollars to push transgender ideology throughout Canada and around the world. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Official party policy opposes the invasion of biological males into female sports and intimate spaces, stating: "The Conservative Party of Canada believes that women are entitled to the safety, dignity, and privacy of single-sex spaces (e.g., prisons, shelters, locker rooms, washrooms) and the benefits of women-only categories (e.g., sports, awards, grants, scholarships)". Official party policy supports banning child sex-change, stating: "A Conservative government will protect children by prohibiting life altering medicinal or surgical interventions on minors under 18 to treat gender confusion or dysphoria". 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Would "outlaw the mutilation of minors" by modifying the Criminal Code to "outlaw the use of puberty blockers, cross-sex hormones, and any form of bodily mutilation on minors with the goal of 'transitioning' to another sex". Furthermore, any person "encouraging minors to 'transition' will be held criminally responsible for attempting to cause harm". Their baseless and irresponsible insinuations started a hate-fueled crime spree against Christian churches, wherein nearly 100 churches since June 2021 have been set on fire or burned to the ground across the country, and another 100 have been vandalized. The media have almost totally ignored the wave of church burnings, but when they did finally ask Trudeau about it, he justified the arson attacks, calling them "understandable". In December 2024, a report was issued from a Liberal/NDP-dominated House of Commons Finance Committee which recommended that in its next budget, the government strip churches, Christian charities, and pro-life organizations of their charitable status. It attacked churches directly by recommending an amendment to the Income Tax Act "to provide a definition of a charity which would remove the privileged status of 'advancement of religion' as a charitable purpose". 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Many Conservative MPs have condemned the hate-fueled crime spree taking place against Christian churches, whereby nearly 100 churches since 2021 have been set on fire or burned to the ground across the country, and another 100 churches have been vandalized in the same period. Neither Bernier nor the PPC have commented on the Liberal-NDP Finance Committee recommendation to strip all churches of their charitable tax status by removing "the advancement of religion" as a charitable purpose from the Income Tax Act. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The NDP and its leader, Jagmeet Singh, are largely ignoring the wave of arson attacks that have consumed nearly 100 Christian churches (and counting) since 2021. Singh made only one statement in July 2021 when the arsons happened, stating rather mildly that burning churches is wrong, but then proceeding to criticize church institutions in the same breath, which had the effect of watering down his condemnation of the arson. Neither the NDP nor its leader, Jagmeet Singh, have made any statement to defend churches and charitable organizations from the December 2024 House of Commons' Finance Committee report which recommended to the Liberal government, amongst other things, that it should strip churches of their charitable status by removing "the advancement of religion" as a charitable purpose from the Income Tax Act.  FREE SPEECH	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Opposes free speech. The Liberal government has passed and introduced numerous laws which aim to censor speech and punish people with "hate crimes" for peacefully expressing their opinions (C-63) and by censoring the internet and social media platforms (C-11, C-18). Supports compelled speech. Believes in forcing Canadians to utter words in which they do not believe, in violation of their consciences. For example, the Liberals passed Bill C-16, a law which compels Canadians to refer to transsexuals and transvestites with made-up personal pronouns they do not believe in, like "Zhe" and "Zhir". Bill C-16 also forces Canadians to refer to biological males as if they were women, on pain of potential human rights complaints and/or criminal "hate speech" charges for non-compliance. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Official party policy is to "promote legislation designed to protect freedom of speech & freedom of expression in Canada". The official Policy Declaration opposes the state forcing citizens to speak words in which they do not believe. In a veiled reference to Liberal Bill C-16 which compels Canadians to utter made-up 'transgender' pronouns, the policy declaration reads: "Compelled speech in any form is a violation of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. It permits 12-yr-olds to possess up to 10 joints. Under the Liberals, all drugs were decriminalized across British Columbia, including crack, cocaine, heroin & fentanyl. Public drug use was also permitted. Overdose deaths in B.C. have risen 338% since the Liberals came to power. Crime has exploded.
